

Leisure Buildings

A place to work, relax or play - our range of buildings has something to offer everyone! We've all dreamed of having an extra 'room' in the garden - whether it be for entertaining or for use as an office or studio. Let our range of chalets and summerhouses make your dreams a reality.

Work

Whatever the size you're considering, one aspect you'll find in common throughout Rowlinson Garden Products range of Leisure Buildings is incredible versatility.

Our buildings can help you create the home office, gym, music room, art studio or general chill out zone that you've always wanted. And at considerably less expense and hassle than moving.

Relax

Beautifully designed and superbly engineered, you'll also find these wooden cabins remarkably easy to build and will last for years, subject to maintenance.

The only real limit to their uses is your imagination.

It's all about detail...

Our reputation for durable, high quality garden products is centred on an exacting attention to detail. All our leisure buildings include lockable doors and pressure treated bearers as standard, and most offer generous roof overhang for shelter and shade. In addition, our larger chalets and cabins feature opening windows and shingle roof tiles.
